Since I have been doing the research I have wondered how different our lives might have been if our ancestors had not chosen the directions that they did. These directions have made us who we are, and landed us in so many different places.

I wonder at the courage of our ancestors - getting on those ships and sailing to far flung foreign lands, with little or no hope of returning to see their families again. How brave they must have been, or perhaps they were just desperate.

We cannot forget those who stayed at home and kept the home fires burning and gave our intrepid travellers a point of reference.

Whether they stayed in places old or travelled to places new, and whatever the reason for their remaining in, or departing from those homelands, we should continue to thank them for being our parents, grandparents and great grandparents and for helping to make us who we are today.

With this in mind, this book is

For my children and grandchildren and broader family
so they know all where we came from.

Copyright

This book has been produced for the express use of family members and should not be reproduced, but can be used for research purposes. However, please respect the privacy of living family by keeping their information confidential.

Thank You

I would like to thank all the members of the family who have continued to supply me with information. There are too many to name, but you know who you are. Without that information, this book would not exist.

Special thanks go to my late aunts, Pax Towt (Blackwell) and Eve Johnson (Blackwell) and my mother Nancye Blackwell, without whose collaboration, enthusiasm, encouragement and advice, I may never have continued with this research.

My research is also interlinked with many other researchers whose families are linked to our own. Thank you to those people who have carried out research into these other family branches. Please see the bibliography and sources at the back of this book for this information. (As a paper saving measure I sometimes omit this information, but it can be supplied on request).

Introduction

Many strange and interesting facts are discovered in the process of family tree research. It can be costly and frustrating, but the results are so worthwhile, all the negatives disappear.

Sadly, there are some facts that will never be known, and a certain amount of supposition then comes into play, but a fact is not a fact without written evidence, so where ever possible, that evidence has been included in the sources section of this book. (As a paper saving measure I sometimes omit this information but it can be supplied on request).

I have carried out this research mostly at my own cost, and in my own time, but I believe that the more people this information is shared with, the longer it will last. I am happy to share this information with the family and I hope that you get some benefit out of my 30 plus years of research.

My motto is "always ask the questions". Sometimes you don't get the answers you want and would like, but if you don't ask, you will never know.

Research can be dry and boring to read and can only go so far, conversations round it all out. Over the years the conversation becomes less and the research becomes greater. It is important to try to have some family stories included amongst the research to make the family seem alive.

DNA has opened up a whole new realm of research and DNA has helped me solve, or put to rest, some family mysteries and dead ends. Without DNA, one entire line of my own tree was incomplete and incorrect. We now know more about our past than we could ever have hoped for. I am sure that DNA research will continue to solve some mysteries, and possibly even create some new mysteries.

I only ask one thing, and that is for all the family to continue to contact me with any information that is missing or incorrect, and that you all continue to contact me regarding any births, deaths and marriages. This is a BIG family, and I can't know it unless you tell me.

This book is a work in progress and will never end, as births deaths and marriages continue down the generations in perpetuity. There are bound to be mistakes in this book and I would appreciate being notified of any alterations or corrections that may be found.

Thank you once again for all your help and please enjoy this labour of love that has taken me more than 30 years to produce.

Descendants of James CRUICKSHANK

First Generation

1. James CRUICKSHANK [752] was born about 1799.¹

General Notes: in May 2017 I was contacted by a Gord Cruickshank from Canada saying that he wondered if his James and this James both born abt 1799 were one in the same as their family had information that at least one sibling came to Australia. On checking Michael Jones and Gord Cruickshank's DNA, there is a definite match between the 2, estimated at 5.1 cousins and 12.6 cM's over 1 segment. If this relationship proves to be correct, this information has been extracted from Gord.c's Rootsweb tree.

Hi again, Coral.

I believe we can safely confirm this as a [DNA] match.

I just spoke to a third cousin who has done no research but inherited information from his Aunt Effie (a granddaughter of James' brother Alexander).

These notes state that one of Alexander's brothers, possibly Lewis or his twin, went to Australia.

I know Lewis settled in Ontario, Canada and that his twin Charles reportedly died in 1814.

However, James was also a twin to Janet who died in 1816

In 1790 George Cruickshank (1765-1842) married Jean/Jane Stewart (1776- 1854) in Huntly, Aberdeenshire, Scotland. The couple lived in Gordonsburn (Longhill) where they had fifteen (known) children including two or more sets of twins. At least two of their children emigrated to Canada.

Their youngest, Alexander (1810-1869), appears to have been the first to arrive in Upper Canada - somewhere between 1835 and 1839. He eventually settled in Lower Canada near what is now Brennan's Hill, near Low, in Gatineau, Quebec. He married Elizabeth McKinzie in Scotland in two separate ceremonies. The first was in December 1833 in her home parish of Drainie, Moray, Scotland. The second was in January 1834 in his parents home parish of Huntly, Aberdeenshire, Scotland. Family history states that Elizabeth was a cousin of "the rebel" William Lyon MacKenzie who was the leader of the Upper Canada Rebellion in the late 1830's. We know from census records that Alex and Betsy had children born in Upper Canada around 1839 to 1841. There is some speculation that it was the connection to the rebel that resulted in the decision to move to Lower Canada. In the 1851 census he appears as a pioneer blacksmith with 400 acres. Most of Alexander's descendants dropped the middle 'C' in the name and spell it Cruikshank.

Alexander's nephew, James, appears to be the second to arrive, around 1850. James was the first descendant to marry in Canada - he married Anne Wallace at St James Cathedral in St. Andrews, Ontario in November 1852. James founded the Cruickshank Carriage Works in Weston, reportedly had an undertakers establishment, was the first Justice of the Peace for Weston, and was also the town's first librarian.

James' father, Lewis/Louis Cruickshank (1797 - 18...) followed his son in 1855 with several more of his children. While some of his children remained in Scotland others brought spouses and families to Canada.

Another of Lewis' sons, George eventually moved to Heathcote, Ontario near Georgian Bay. Like his brother James, he founded a carriage works and also operated as an undertaker. He was secretary to the school board and was also the Postmaster for the area.

The descendants of these individuals have varied stories. Some became doctors, some teachers, some were priests. One is even reported to have stolen a car from the front of Union Station in Ottawa. Turns out it belonged to C.D. Howe , a prominent Canadian politician in the cabinet of PM William Lyon MacKenzie King - who was the grandson of "the rebel".²

A FARMER KILLED.

FATAL RIDING ACCIDENT

KERANG, Wednesday.

Mr. Patrick Cummins, a farmer and contractor, and a resident of Budgerum for the past 20 years, was killed last night while proceeding from Kerang to his home.

He was accompanied by Mr. Dennis Collins, a neighbour, and when about eight miles from Kerang Mr. Cummins' horse tripped, the rider falling. Finding that his companion could not speak, Mr. Collins got assistance, and it was then ascertained that Cummins was killed. The body was brought to Kerang, where a magisterial inquiry was held to-day by Mr. Adams, J.P., who found a verdict of accidental death.

The Kerang Times (Vic. : 1889 - 1901) Fri 15 Dec 1899 Page 2 FATAL ACCIDENT.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Considerable regret was expressed in Kerang when it was reported on Wednesday morning that Mr Patrick Cummins the well-known farmer and contractor of Budgerum, had been killed by a fall from his horse on the previous night when returning home from the Kerang Shire Council meeting.

The deceased was much respected as a hard -working, honest man. He took a great interest in public matters in the western ridings of the shire. Physically he was a splendid specimen of robust manhood. He was kind and gentle in his disposition ; thoroughly honest in his business transactions, warmly esteemed as a neighbor and friend, and a good kind husband and father to his family.

On Wednesday afternoon a magisterial inquiry was held in Kerang by Mr Geo. Adams J.P., and the following evidence was taken : -

Mrs Mary Ann Cummins, wife of deceased, had seen the body which she identified as that of her husband, who was 54 years of age. He left his home at Budgerum on the previous day (Tuesday) to come in to Kerang on business. Denis Collins reported to her that morning (Wednesday) that he had been killed by a fall from his horse on the way home the previous night.

Denis Collins, contractor, Budgerum, had known deceased for over 20 years, and lived about three miles away from his residence. He met deceased in Kerang on the previous day, and they agreed to ride home together. They left the Kerang Hotel together about 10 p.m., and rode steadily till meeting the Mallee when deceased suggested they should push on. The horses were cantering, when witness noticed Mr Cummins' mare stumble, and apparently come down on her knees, and then he noticed she was riderless, and deceased was lying on the ground. He caught the mare and went back and called to him, but got no reply. Deceased was lying on his back. He tied the horses to the fence and went to deceased. He noticed blood about his eye. He shook him and spoke to him, but got no reply, and then saw that he was dead. Witness then got on his own horse and rode to Messrs Cullen Bros.' farm and informed them. George and John Cullen then accompanied witness to the place. Deceased had had a few drinks in the afternoon. Mr Cullen's was the last hotel they were at.

Descendants of James CRUICKSHANK

George J. Cullen, farmer at Knoranjie, testified that between midnight and 1 a.m. that morning he had been roused by the last witness, and accompanied him to the Sandhill Lake road, where he saw deceased, Patrick Cummins, lying on the road. Witness felt his pulse and found it had ceased to beat, and realised that he was dead. He came into Kerang reported the matter to the police.

John Kelly, groom at the Kerang hotel, knew deceased and identified the body. Deceased had left his horse in witness's charge on the previous day, and came for it at about 10 o'clock, when he left for home with Denis Collins. Deceased appeared to be sober and capable of looking after himself when he left, James Hancock, senior constable of police stationed at Kerang, testified that he had been called up at about 1.45 a.m. that morning by Dennis Collins and Geo. Cullen, and proceeded with them about eight miles out on the Budgerum road from Kerang. Witness saw deceased lying on the road on his back, with his head to the west. He examined the body, and noticed blood issuing from nose, ears, and eye. His clothing was not disarranged, and there was no sign of a struggle. Witness had the body brought into Kerang. There were no suspicious circumstances, and he had no doubt deceased met his death by being thrown from his horse.

Dr. Samuel H. Seccombe, surgeon, practising at Kerang, testified that he had made a post mortem examination of the body and found deceased had sustained a fracture of the base of the skull, which had caused death.

The presiding magistrate found that deceased, Patrick Cummins, had died from fracture of the skull, caused by a fall from his horse, and gave the necessary order for the interment.

The late Mr Cummins was a native of Mallow, County Cork, Ireland. He came to Victoria 34 years ago, and battled through the vicissitudes of a pioneer life with sturdy courage and manliness. He was successful as a miner in the early days before he turned his attention to agriculture. He leaves a widow and grown up family of four sons and six daughters to mourn his sudden transition. Much sympathy is expressed throughout the district with Mrs Cummins and family in their painful bereavement. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon, when his mortal remains were interred in the Kerang cemetery. The Rev. Father Murphy conducted the burial service at the grave, and the mortuary arrangements were carried out by Messrs Geo. Adams and Sons.

INQUEST. OLD WOMAN'S DEATH.

Tram Driver Exonerated.

A finding that Sarah Coubrough (76), of Violet-street, West Perth, met her death on October 12 by being accidentally knocked down by a tramcar at the intersection of Second-avenue and Guildford-road, Maylands, no blame being attachable to the driver of the tram, was returned by the Acting-Coroner (Mr. I Foristal, J.P.) at an inquest held at the Perth Court-house yesterday. It was stated that Mrs. Coubrough had a poor memory and was accustomed to wander about the streets alone, sometimes unable to find her way home. Sergeant Lynes examined the witnesses. Evidence showed that on the day of her death Mrs. Coubrough was seen by her husband at the corner of William-street and Newcastle-street. He told her to go home, but later an acquaintance met her in Wittenoom-street, East Perth. This witness told her in answer to a question that one of her daughters lived in Guildford-road, Bayswater, and told her how to go home. About 11.30 p.m. a motorist saw a woman answering to her description walking north in the middle of Guildford-road, Mt. Lawley. Wallace Moseley Woodford, motorman of a tramcar, travelling north in Guildford-road about 11.40 p.m., said that near First-avenue the tram was travelling about 15 miles an hour. He slowed down crossing the intersection, which was very dark. When he had crossed the intersection he saw the woman, close to the tram, walking towards it about a foot from the south rail. He sounded the gong and put the tram into reverse, but the tram struck the woman before it stopped. The West Australian (Perth, WA : 1879 - 1954) Tue 10 Nov

OLD TIMERS AGED 90 AND 100 MEET

A 90-year-old Goldfields identity whose father kept watch on Peter Lalor while he sheltered in a shaft at the time of the Eureka Stockade, paid a friendly call last Tuesday afternoon on an old Perth resident who will be 101 years of age next September.

The caller was 90-year-old Mr. George Hooley, a well known mining identity who has been following the lure of gold since he was a boy, and only gave it up four months ago. The man he called on was Mr. John James Coubrough, a retired Perth wheelwright, aged 100 years, who is living with his daughter, Mrs. S. M. Dickerson, at Ewing-street, Welshpool. The meeting was arranged at 4r. Hooley's special request because of his desire to have a chat with a "fellow old-timer."

Mr. Coubrough, who attributes his longevity to leading an active life and not worrying, as still possessed of all his faculties and walks about determinedly, with the aid of a stick. Born at Paisley, Scotland, in 1848, he was brought to Melbourne at the age of two. As a youth he was a keen boxer and on Tuesday he recalled vividly some of his fights at Jim Mace's boxing stadium in Bourke-street, near the Theatre Royal, and later when he came to this State how he knocked out a famous fighter named Black Paddy in what he described as a "friendly argument." That, he emphasised, was before the Beaufort-street bridge was built. Mr. Coubrough recalled Melbourne in its early days and the old historic Batman Hotel.

Claiming to be the oldest wheelwright in Australia, Mr. Coubrough said that he had made thousands of wheels for elite turnouts in Perth and drays and wagons for the gold-rush days at Coolgardie and Kalgoorlie. He was married at the age of 45 and his wife predeceased him about eight years ago. He has more than 30 grandchildren, he says. "I have handled a lot of money in my time and spent a lot of it, too," said Mr. George Hooley, who was born at Mt. Doran, 18 miles from Ballarat, Victoria, and started following the "colours" while he was still a boy. His life has been one of hardship, incident and spectacular discoveries interspersed with lean periods. A full volume would be required to record even the highlights of his adventures. He was one of the first 17 men at the Coolgardie rush in 1892 and found the Lady Loch mine three miles from the township. The first 500 tons, crushed at Bayley's South, went 5oz per ton.

FOUND WHITE CLIFFS

Mr. Hooley was the man who found the White Cliffs opal field on Mt. Brown road, about 60 miles from Wilcannia. He sold his interest for £16,000 and the field yielded at least £10,000,000, he said. He pegged out the main reef at Kanowna, known as the White Feather. There were three 12-acre blocks and they were sold to Berbeck Hoffman and Co., and floated into a £75,000 company of which Mr. Hooley got one-sixth in shares.

Mr. Hooley has prospected on goldfields in all parts of the State from the Kimberleys south. At one time he was prospecting for 12 months in the desert country and grew a 2ft. beard which, he said, he could tie around his neck.

Another time he witnessed cannibalism among wild natives out from Hall's Creek. He lost an eye some ten years ago when being brought into hospital for treatment in a motor car. On a rough track portion of his head and the eye itself were crushed by a door handle. Still lithe and agile in spite of his 90 years, Mr. Hooley said that he was not feeling his best because, after smoking all his life, he gave up the habit very recently. The repercussions, he declared, were strange.

OBITUARY. DEATH OF ONE OF STATE'S OLDEST INHABITANTS. Probably the oldest inhabitant of the metropolitan area, John Coubrough, of Ewing-street, Welshpool, died at Midland Junction on Monday afternoon at the age of 101. Among his surviving relatives are 40 grandchildren and 30 great-grandchildren.

Last night his eldest grandchild, Mr. T. A. Cooper (40), of Hooley street, Midland Junction, said that his grandfather had been born in Paisley, Scotland, on September 12, 1848, and had come to Australia about a year later with his parents to settle in Victoria. One of his grandfather's brothers was still living in Victoria.

About 50 years ago the late Mr. Coubrough had come to this State with his wife and family, and had lived for a time in a tent near High-street, Fremantle. There had been six daughters and one son of the marriage and the son, Mr. John Coubrough, jun., was living in Charles-street, Welshpool. The late Mr. Coubrough's wife, Sarah, had died in 1923.

Mr. Cooper said that his grandfather had been a wheelwright and blacksmith in Midland Junction for many years. He had been an inveterate pipe-smoker and had smoked up to a few days before his death. He had taken pride in telling his relatives that he had smoked since the age of ten years. He had also been a beer drinker until a few months ago. He had never worn glasses. Except for a time about 30 years ago when he had suffered fractures of the ribs in a fall, his grandfather had never been in hospital during his long life.

He had only known of three occasions on which his grandfather had ridden in an automobile, said Mr. Cooper.

Woman Suicides in Flat

A finding that Nora Hendy caused her own death by gas poisoning on October 17, was returned by the Coroner (Mr. T. Y. A. Lang, P.M.) today. Mrs. Hendy was found dead in her Hay-street flat with her head on a gas stove, and the jet turned on. Medical evidence showed that, death had been caused by gas poisoning. A sister of Mrs. Hendy said that deceased, who was a barmaid, had been subject to despondency through having been unemployed for some time.

SHOCK FOR NEIGHBOR

Mrs. Elizabeth Roe, occupant of a flat adjoining Mrs. Hendy's, said that on October 14 Mrs. Hendy received news concerning a friend which upset her greatly. For several days Mrs. Hendy who said that if she had a revolver she would kill herself, was not left alone. On the morning of October 17, when witness knocked at Mrs. Hendy's door, she noticed a strong smell of gas. With her husband and another man witness went into the flat and saw Mrs. Hendy, clad in pyjamas, sitting with her head on the gas stove, and a rug over her head and shoulders. The gas jet was turned on. Mrs. Hendy was dead.

Obscene Language. - 'I suppose I must have used it,' said William Francis Andrews when he was charged in the Kalgoorlie Police Court yesterday morning with being disorderly by using obscene language outside the Carlton Cafe on August 13. The police evidence was that accused and two friends had been attempting to enter the Carlton Cafe after it had closed and were walking down to the Primrose Cafe when the door of the Carlton Cafe opened. They were retracing their steps when the door was shut again and accused then made use of disgusting language in a loud voice. Accused had been drinking but he was not drunk. The bench, Messrs. A. Porter and C. Massey, J's.P., stated that they had decided to stop the use of filthy language in the streets. Accused was fined £5 with costs.

Percy Marmo
(Cir 1915)

General Notes: Toora and Welshpool Ensign and South Gippsland Observer (Vic. : 1914 - 1918) Fri 1 Oct 1915 Page 2 ROBBERY.

ROBBERY.
A smart arrest was effected by Constable W. M. Thomas, of Toora, during the week in connection with a daring robbery which was committed at Port Welshpool on Friday night last at Mr C. Anderson's business premises, whilst the occupiers were attending the Fisk Jubilee Singers concert at Welshpool. On their return Mrs Anderson found that an entrance had been forced into the shop, and on examination found that the till had been opened and a sum of £10 11s extracted. On Saturday morning Constable Thomas was in- formed of the burglary and visited the Port to investigate. Suspicion fell on an individual named Percy Marmo, who had been working at the Port for some time, and he was interrogated by the police official, but he denied any guilt. It was, how- ever, ascertained by Const. Thomas the footprints of the accused exactly fitted an impression left outside the shop. Marmo, however, had no money in his possession, and was not detained by the constable. On Sunday Const. Thomas visited Welshpool and when seen by Marmo, the latter ran away from him. That day the suspect stopped at Welshpool and Const. Thomas found in his room the paper bag which had contained the money. On Monday Marmo bought a ticket at Welshpool for Melbourne, but did not travel by the train. Constable Thomas watched his movements that, he was walking towards Melbourne. Next day Marmo stepped into the train at Fish Creek and was immediately arrested and charged with the theft by Const. Thomas, who then found over £5 in his possession. He was brought back to Foster and remanded to Melbourne, and will be tried at Foster on the 8th inst. It is expected that Marmo's arrest will clear up several mysterious robberies which occurred at Footscray some time ago, as he answers the description of the person wanted in connection with the crimes.

FOSTER POLICE COURT.
FOSTER POLICE COURT.
FRIDAY, OCT. 8th, 1915.

(Before Messrs. W. W. Harris. P.M., M. Lehen and M. Synan. J.P's).

Constable Thomas proceeded against Charles Green for hawking and selling goods (books) of an immoral character without a licence. In consequence of information received he interviewed Green at the Railway Hotel, Toora, and found he was in possession of such books. Reginald E. Page gave evidence as to the purchasing of books (one of which was produced). Fined 5s, with 30s costs, in de fault 24 hours.

Theft.

Percy William Marmo was brought before the court by Cons. Thomas with having, on the 24th September last, broken into and abstracted from the till of Mrs. Chas. Anderson's store, at Port Welshpool, the sum of £10 while the occupants were attending an entertainment at Welshpool. Inspector Fowler conducted the case for the Crown, while accused, who pleaded not guilty, was undefended.

After explaining the facts of the case for the prosecution Inspector Fowler called Louisa Anderson, owner and occupier of the business at Port Welsh pool, stated that she knew accused for the past eleven months, he having lived in a hut belonging to her within 200 yards of the store. Remmember edthe 24th September last, when accused came into the store at about 7 p.m., and purchased some butter and a loaf of bread, for which he said he would pay on the following Saturday. Always kept the money in the till, which she had opened in his (accused's) presence to get money for the concert. Had also handled the bag containing the £10, which was afterwards missing. Accused could see what was in the till from where he stood. The £10 comprised 6 £1 notes, 10s note, ½ sovereign, and £3 in silver. There was also other money in the till, including £10 in a canvas bag at the rear of the till, which could not have been noticed unless the till was pulled right out. After closing the store she left for Welshpool on the tram, there being nobody in charge during her absence. On their return at about 11.30 p.m. they entered the house from the back door, and having supper were surprised to see two girlfriends open and walk in through the front door, which aroused their suspicion, the door having been locked prior to their departure for Welshpool. She (witness) immediately inspected the till, and found the paper bag containing the £10 missing. The bag produced was similar to the one referred to. Did not authorise anyone to remove money from the till.

On being asked by the P.M. if he (accused) had any questions to ask the witness, he stated that he had walked out of the shop immediately after receiving the goods. This was all he had to state. George Anderson (sworn) said he resided at Port Welshpool. Had known accused for several months. Remembered the 24th Sept., when he came into the shop and purchased some cigarettes from him (witness). Had securely locked up the premises before leaving for Port Welshpool. Just prior to leaving had noticed accused in front of the shop. The windows were all fastened. Following the appearance of visitors through the front door an inspection of the windows was made by him, when it was found that one had been forced open, and another one tampered with. In the morning he examined the yard, and found the articles by which he surmised the window had been opened, the baton and axe produced he identified as the same. Also found foot prints. On the 25th he summoned Cons. Thomas, who, on arrival, had brought accused round and compared his left boot with the mark in the clay. Cons. Thomas remarked to accused, "That fits your boot," to which he replied "Yes, it fits it." The boot produced was the one tried.

Accused (to witness) denied using the words "Yes, it fits." Geo. Carter, fisherman, Port Welshpool, knew accused. On the 24th Sept. was at the Association reading room, when he noticed Marmo walk in at about 9 p.m., and again about 10 o'clock. Herbert Read, groom at Welshpool Hotel, said on the 27th Sept. saw Marmo in bed at the hotel. Cons. Thomas called the day he (accused) left the hotel. Had shown the constable the room he (accused) had occupied, and had noticed the constable pick up a paper bag from the floor, which was not in the room the night previous. George Holyoak, station master at Fish Creek, remembered the 28th Sept., when he had seen accused on the platform. Had served him with a second-class ticket to Melbourne, and received in payment a £10 note.

Constable Thomas brought accused into his office and searched him, when he found concealed in his shirt pocket six £1 notes, and in another pocket some loose silver. Had returned the note to the constable in return for the ticket. The note produced appeared to be the same. Constable Thomas, on being examined, said from information received he journeyed to Port Welshpool. On arriving at Anderson's he found the store had been broken into. Suspicions led to accused, whose boots compared with the marks outside the window, which were very plain and distinct. After a conversation he visited the hut occupied by Marmo, and made a thorough search of both him and the hut. Found about 6s in silver and a few coppers on him, which he said was all the money he had. Had received a written statement from him as to his movements the night previous. On the 27th Sept. saw accused at Welshpool, when he ran away. In the evening he obtained information that caused the issue of a warrant for his arrest. On the 28th he (witness) journeyed to Fish Creek, where he met accused in the act of proceeding to Melbourne. On being searched, the money as stated by witness Holyoak, was found on him, which, in answer to questions, accused said that he had received from Syd. Knight, and that when searched at Port Welshpool the money was deposited under a pillow of a bed he had occupied at his uncle's place at that place. He subsequently arrested him and locked him up.

This closed the evidence for the prosecution.

In reply to the P.M., accused pleaded not guilty, and gave evidence of his action from the time of the robbery to that of his arrest, but nothing relative to how he became of the money in his possession. On the night of the robbery, according to his evidence, he was mostly at the Association reading room, and in company with other folk. The day after he was at Welshpool, from which place he, although having purchased a railway ticket to Melbourne, walked to Fish Creek, remaining over night at Hoddle Range, thence to Fish Creek, where his arrest terminated his journey. In a brief summing up, the P.M. ordered accused to take his trial at the Court of General Sessions at Yarram on the 10th Nov. next. As the accused was on remand Continued on Page 3 Scroll to previous page from a recent trial at the Footscray court for other charges bail could not be allowed, and he was removed to the cell.

A further charge with having in his possession a gold ring, the property of Miss Rose Peterson, taken from a vest pocket hanging in a house belonging to Oscar Olson at Port Welshpool, was also brought against accused, but the case was adjourned until the 12th Nov. at Foster, 19s being allowed for costs.

Three days after Constable Davis produced a watch which witness identified as his wife's property. YOUNG MAN COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.

At the Footscray Court on Thursday a young man named Percy Marmo was presented on a charge of having feloniously entered the house of James F. Birch, 6 Bunbury street. Descendants of James CRUICKSHANK

Evidence for the prosecution was given by James F. Birch and Olive Birch, that the jewellery was taken during a short absence from the house on October 15, 1914, by Melvina Freeman, assistant in a Hopkins street pawnbroking business, that accused tried to pledge the missing gold watch and chain for 30s for his mother, but that when she found the name engraved inside was Olive. whereas the man said his mother's name was Mary or Elizabeth, her suspicions were aroused. She detained the watch, and rang up the police. Plain-clothes Constable Davis said he interviewed accused in the Melbourne gaol on October 1st of this year. When asked where he got the watch he tried to pawn at Freeman's he said it had been given him by a young fellow who had gone to the front that morning; that the razor had been given to him by the same person at the same time to pawn. Accused had been arrested at Toora on another charge.

There were two further charges against accused of having, between August 25th and 29th, entered the dwelling of Winifred Forge and stolen jewellery valued at £12: of having entered the residence of Charlotte Treagus on October 15 and stolen jewellery valued at £22. Plain-clothes Constable Davis said he was not prepared to go on. A remand was granted to Thursday, 21st inst., bail being allowed on accused's own and another surety of £100.

The chairman (Mr. Caldecott) said the bench desired to congratulate Mrs. Freeman on the action she had taken. It was highly commendable indeed. Sometimes they had reason to cavil at pawnbrokers for their laxity, but they had reason to be pleased in this case.

Cemetery Thefts.-Sarah Margaret Dickerson (42) and Florence Myrtle Bodger (36) faced eight charges of stealing and two of unlawful possession in respect of 27 Hardliners, rose bowls and vases stolen from the Karrakatta Cemetery. The articles were found in a city auction mart during Investigations by detectives subsequent to the two women having been bound over at the Fremantle Court in connection with thefts of similar articles from the Fremantle Cemetery. Counsel for accused (Mr. F. Curran) pleaded for leniency because the offences had been committed prior to the accused being bound over at the Fremantle Court. He said that the husbands of the two women were on the basic wage and their respective families numbered eight and seven. Describing the offence as despicable, the Magistrate imposed a fine of £1 on each charge, and remarked. "If the police had not found the vases. I presume you would have collected the money."

Women Steal from Cemetery

Four times two women visited the Karrakatta Cemetery and stole rose bowls, vases and hardliners which they took to an auction mart.

Detectives found 27 of the articles, still unsold in the mart. They questioned the women who admitted the thefts.

In the Perth Police Court today 42-year-old Sarah Margaret Dickerson and 36 year-old Florence Myrtle Bodger pleaded guilty to four charges of stealing and one of unlawful possession.

-Mr. F. Curran (for the women) said that Bodger and Dickerson were bound over on a similar charge at Fremantle on January 31. As the offences which they now admitted had been committed before they were bound over he hoped that the Bench would not estreat their bonds.

Both women were married to husbands on the basic wage and had large families, Mr. Curran said. Detective Sergeant Smith said that when he questioned the women at Fremantle they did not tell him of the articles in the mart.

Magistrate F. M. Read said that if Dickerson and Bodger had told the police everything when they were first questioned he would have been more inclined to be lenient. 'If the police had not found the vases I can only presume you would have collected the money. It is a despicable thing,' he said. Dickerson and Bodger were each fined £1 on each of the charges. [Sergeant W. C. Wyatt prosecuted.]

To meet her, you would never guess that Jessie Jones had just turned 99 years old.

Her energetic personality, or how easily she can hold a conversation, points to a much younger lady.

Her easy-to-talk-to nature is possibly why she has formed so many friendships over her life's journey.

Jessie, who has lived in Deniliquin all her life, had more than 40 family and friends gather on Tuesday, her actual birthday, to mark her 99th year with an afternoon tea.

Jessie Jones (Maver)
from newspaper article 2013 for her 99th birthday
(2013)

"I've had a wonderful day," said Jessie, who then shared her appreciation of her home town.

"I love Deni and the people in it.

"I've hardly ever left, only to go to Melbourne and to Sydney."

Jessie has worked several jobs throughout her lifetime, which she says has been one of "ups and downs".

"Anywhere I can help, I have done it," she said.

The PASTORAL TIMES reported on Jessie's 90th birthday, referring to her as "an avid bowler".

Descendants of James CRUICKSHANK

Her friends of more than 40 years -Tony and Lyn Smith - say she has always been "lively" and "energetic".

Despite breaking her hip one year ago, Jessie still "runs everywhere", Mrs Smith said.

And what was her birthday wish?

"I just wish everybody the best."

Jessie, who never had children with her late husband Ron, announced proudly that she has three nieces. She is looking forward to her centenarian celebrations next year.

FAMOUS BAKER

Len Jones 1987

A Bena Football and Netball Club volunteer and famous Korumburra baker has died.

Leonard George Jones (Pop or Poppy, as he is known to many) was born on December 13 1925 at Bendigo, the second of three children to George and Kath Jones.

Len started school at Red Cliffs primary, then St. Joseph's Catholic school in Red Cliffs until the family moved to Swan Hill.

In his youth, Len was a cub Scout, a roller skater, motorbike and sidecar racer as well as playing harmonica for a regional radio station.

He was even a ballroom dance instructor at a prestigious Melbourne dance academy.

Len left school around the age of 14 and took up an apprenticeship as a baker in Swan Hill.

He continued his apprenticeship in Nhill before finishing up at Kew.

During his apprenticeship year, World War 2 broke out Len enlisted in the Navy.

Len was not taken in, however, as his baker's apprenticeship didn't allow for such under the terms of the Essential Services Act, so he had to stay home and bake bread.

Employment opportunities after the war led Len to Yenda (NSW) where he started his own business as a baker.

He gave this away and followed his father's footsteps, joining the PMG where he worked as a linesman, cable joiner, and jackhammer operator.

It was around this time he met Margaret Sullivan.

Len and Margaret had nine children, Michael, Kathleen, Patricia, Gregory, Susan, Maxwell, David, Fiona and Kellie; then 21 grandchildren, a number which is still increasing.

Len gave away his PMG job in the late 1950's and joined his brother-in-law working on a fruit block at Woorineen, near Swan Hill.

When the block was sold returned his hand back to baking and the family moved to Myrtleford before moving to Korumburra 43 years ago.

Len soon earned fame as the baker at LeGross's in Korumburra, along with his home delivered bread run.

Descendants of James CRUICKSHANK

Len left the bakehouse and took up farmhand work, milking cows in the district for Walkers (Korumburra), Castles (Bena), Prossers (Loch), and Lupis (Bass Valley) before being forced onto an invalid pension 24 years ago.

At this juncture (1980) the family settled at Korumburra into what at the time was a rather plain housing commission house.

Len's love of gardening saw him transform the appearance with a very well groomed garden.

But it was not only the front garden that was Len's showpiece, he toiled equally hard in the backyard with his veggie patch, fruit trees and orchids.

As his children grew, Len's interest in life followed them.

For many years he helped coach at the Bena Netball Club and was a team manager thirds and fourths teams for the Bena Football Club.

Len also served on the Bena Football Club Committee.

He was also involved in the cricket club at Bena, playing key roles in coaching and team management.

Yet despite all these involvements in things for the kids, Len still managed a bit of time for fishing, cards, a bet or two on the horses, and time to watch the cricket and footy on TV.

After an illness, Len passed away peacefully at Korumburra hospital on April 9, aged 77 years.

General Notes: Mallee farmer, 90, brings in last crop after 75 years of harvests

Philip 'PK' Templeton has not missed a harvest since 1941, but this year stands out for two key reasons- it is his best ever, and it also is his last.

Mr Templeton, 90, has manned the header for 75 successive years.

AUDIO: Philip Templeton reflects on 75 successive years in the header as he and son Tom harvest their last crop. (ABC News)

When this harvest is complete, in about mid-January, he and his 57-year-old son Tom will lease their Mallee, Victoria grain farm to someone else.

"In the past 30 years ... I wouldn't have driven the header for more than eight hours," Tom said.

"[People] would think he gets on just for a lunchtime run or a couple of hours, but he drives it from morning to night - I can't get in there."

The pride at his father's passion is tainted, ever so slightly, by bitterness.

Tom's last harvest will be spent in the old 1974 blue truck, which lacks the air-conditioned comfort of his father's modern header.

"I measured it one day - it gets up to 57 degrees in that truck," Tom said.

"Stand out in the paddock, it might be 38 degrees and seem like it's fairly cool with a little bit of breeze."

Mr Templeton does not have much sympathy.

"I think he's getting a bit soft. The young fellas today wouldn't believe what we done," he said.

Mr Templeton's first harvest, at 15 years old, involved a five-foot stripper pulled by three horses.

"You wound it up over the stumps and put it down again and I never stopped winding all day," he said.

"Now you can do it in a few minutes, what you done in a day '97 and it was hot.

"They say 'Back in the good old times'. I say, they can stick the good old times."
Ninety years of drought, floods and everything in between

Mr Templeton's long farming career has been marked by drought, flood and everything in between.

In tough years he would seek off-farm labour work, including shearing, and sewing or hauling wheat bags.

He will not easily forget the worst of them.

"In the 1940s I was shearing out at Blue Hills and came home one weekend [to find] five foot of sand over the road," he said.

"There was a sheet of iron off an old house and it blew sand in and it filled the room up.

Philip 'PK' Templeton, 90

"It was dry; nearly as dry as I get when I'm on that header."

This year, his last, is a different story.

"The best year ever. It didn't stop raining the whole year," he said.

Growers right across the Wimmera Mallee region are celebrating record winter and spring rainfall, but grain prices have hit an all-time low.

"I can remember selling wheat 30 years ago for a lot more than we're getting for it now," Mr Templeton said.

"I can remember selling wheat for $440 a tonne; not anymore."

Today an average tonne of wheat would be lucky to make $200.

'The city of Chinkapook', then and now

When Mr Templeton is not working the farm he can be found tinkering in a shed behind his Chinkapook home.

Once a busy centre with a supermarket, bank, milk bar and multiple football teams, the town now hosts a total of 15 residents.

The landscape transformation has been just as dramatic, after the likes of Mr Templeton's grandfather cleared it of trees to boost farming production.

A sign describes Chinkapook as 'The place of red earth', and clouds of dust are the only sign of life to be found.

It is difficult to tell which of the old houses are still occupied and which have been abandoned.

Mr Templeton calls it "the city of Chinkapook".

It was where he was born, not in a hospital but on his parent's farm, and where he married his late wife Margaret.

It also was where they raised their seven children - "Don't be laughing, we had no television," Mr Templeton quips.

And where, once his body refuses to contain him, his spirit will remain.

"When I go up on the hill, I've got the plot next to Margaret," he said.

"I'm making my own coffin. I want to be able to see out, so I'm going to put a couple of windows in it."
