Since I have been doing the research I have wondered how different our lives might have been if our ancestors had not chosen the directions that they did. These directions have made us who we are, and landed us in so many different places.

I wonder at the courage of our ancestors - getting on those ships and sailing to far flung foreign lands, with little or no hope of returning to see their families again. How brave they must have been, or perhaps they were just desperate.

We cannot forget those who stayed at home and kept the home fires burning and gave our intrepid travellers a point of reference.

Whether they stayed in places old or travelled to places new, and whatever the reason for their remaining in, or departing from those homelands, we should continue to thank them for being our parents, grandparents and great grandparents and for helping to make us who we are today.

With this in mind, this book is

For my children and grandchildren and broader family
so they know all where we came from.

Copyright

This book has been produced for the express use of family members and should not be reproduced, but can be used for research purposes. However, please respect the privacy of living family by keeping their information confidential.

Thank You

I would like to thank all the members of the family who have continued to supply me with information. There are too many to name, but you know who you are. Without that information, this book would not exist.

Special thanks go to my late aunts, Pax Towt (Blackwell) and Eve Johnson (Blackwell) and my mother Nancye Blackwell, without whose collaboration, enthusiasm, encouragement and advice, I may never have continued with this research.

My research is also interlinked with many other researchers whose families are linked to our own. Thank you to those people who have carried out research into these other family branches. Please see the bibliography and sources at the back of this book for this information. (As a paper saving measure I sometimes omit this information, but it can be supplied on request).

Introduction

Many strange and interesting facts are discovered in the process of family tree research. It can be costly and frustrating, but the results are so worthwhile, all the negatives disappear.

Sadly, there are some facts that will never be known, and a certain amount of supposition then comes into play, but a fact is not a fact without written evidence, so where ever possible, that evidence has been included in the sources section of this book. (As a paper saving measure I sometimes omit this information but it can be supplied on request).

I have carried out this research mostly at my own cost, and in my own time, but I believe that the more people this information is shared with, the longer it will last. I am happy to share this information with the family and I hope that you get some benefit out of my 30 plus years of research.

My motto is "always ask the questions". Sometimes you don't get the answers you want and would like, but if you don't ask, you will never know.

Research can be dry and boring to read and can only go so far, conversations round it all out. Over the years the conversation becomes less and the research becomes greater. It is important to try to have some family stories included amongst the research to make the family seem alive.

DNA has opened up a whole new realm of research and DNA has helped me solve, or put to rest, some family mysteries and dead ends. Without DNA, one entire line of my own tree was incomplete and incorrect. We now know more about our past than we could ever have hoped for. I am sure that DNA research will continue to solve some mysteries, and possibly even create some new mysteries.

I only ask one thing, and that is for all the family to continue to contact me with any information that is missing or incorrect, and that you all continue to contact me regarding any births, deaths and marriages. This is a BIG family, and I can't know it unless you tell me.

This book is a work in progress and will never end, as births deaths and marriages continue down the generations in perpetuity. There are bound to be mistakes in this book and I would appreciate being notified of any alterations or corrections that may be found.

Thank you once again for all your help and please enjoy this labour of love that has taken me more than 30 years to produce.

2. William FAULKNER [8904] (*William*¹) was born on 27 Sep 1807 in Oundle, Northamptonshire, England,³ was christened on 1 Nov 1807 in Oundle, Northamptonshire, England, and died before 1887 in Melbourne, VIC, Australia.⁴

General Notes: Victorian BDM online search states this William, parents unknown and age at death 24 years. This would be the correct age for this William's son also William. This requires verification. However there is a death in 1872 of another William at Hampton who is said to be 40 years old at the time, so this could be the son William. William was deceased before 1887 when his wife died as she is referred to as the relict of William Faulkner in death notices. I have found no death to match this William adequately at this time.

William married Elizabeth MATTHEWS [8910], daughter of John MATTHEWS [8995] and Esther SWINSTEAD [8996], on 9 Nov 1829 in Leighton Buzzard, Bedfordshire, England.⁵ Elizabeth was born in 1812 in Leighton Buzzard, Bedfordshire, England and died on 1 Jul 1887 in Fitzroy, Vic, Australia, at age 75.

General Notes: Elizabeth arrived in Australia on the Ship Earl of Sefton in 1856 with her sons William and Thomas R. She was 43 at the time, William was 21 and Thomas was said to be 10.

OBITUARY

NONOGENARIAN'S FUNERAL

After having reached the great age of 98 years, Mr. John Rawson, of 75 Kincaid-street, Wagga, died at an early hour on Saturday morning at his residence, after a short illness. Mr. Rawson retired from active public life about 14 years ago and has since resided in Wagga, where he quickly won the respect and high esteem of the whole community for his wonderful munificence towards charitable institutions and other worthy causes, particularly the Wagga District Hospital. Born at Sunderland, Durham, England, he came to Australia with his parents when only a boy, making the memorable trip on the barque, "British Empire," and landing at Geelong on March 14, 1853. Mr. Rawson paid a visit to Geelong only a few years ago and noticed many changes.

His father also passed the allotted span of three score years and ten, reaching the age of 84 years at the time of his death. His mother died in her 64th year. Mr. John Rawson was twice married, first to Miss Hannah Faulkner, at Inverleigh (Vic.), in 1869, there being four children by this marriage three of whom survive him. In 1877 Mr. Rawson married Miss Amelia Faulkner at Geelong, and she predeceased him in July 1933. There were no children of that marriage. He came to New South Wales in 1876, and until his retirement 14 years ago, was successfully engaged in farming and grazing pursuits in the Lockhart and Jerilderie districts. Children surviving him are Mr John Frederick Rawson of Milbrulong, who is visiting Eng land for the Coronation festivities; James Alfred, of Trundle; and Annie (Mrs. J. Rawson) of Dubbo). There are seven grand-children and 10 great-grand-children.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon. The cortege, which was very representative, moved from the Methodist Church, Wagga, at 1.30 o'clock for the Lockhart Cemetery, where interment took place in the family enclosure. Before leaving the church, a short service, largely attended by relatives and many old friends, was conducted by the Rev. A.

J. Gould. Mrs. A. J. Boswell played the organ and two of Mr. Rawson's favorite hymns, "Rock of Ages" and "The Sands of Time are Sinking," were sung by the congregation.

Mr. Gould in paying tribute to Mr. Rawson said, that he had known him for more than 20 years, and knew him as one of God's gentlemen. He was just a small man, but one with a grasp on God's finer things. He was a man of strong religious convictions. He had lived through the Victorian age and was possessed of Victorian standards which had stood the test of the ages. John Rawson was a particularly generous man, who started on the road of life with nothing in his pocket but made good with diligence and honesty. Mr. Gould remembered many occasions when Mr. Rawson had personally helped people who were in urgent need.

Descendants of William FAULKNER

He was a Christian gentleman, he said, with no affectation, was quiet, unobtrusive, reserved and very shy, but who loved the little people of the Sunday School and always looked for some way to assist them. "We thank God for a beautiful Christian gentleman of God, unafraid of meeting death," said Mr. Gould, "and to the bereaved ones we give you our very tender sympathy in so great a loss."

The heavy oaken casket, beautifully mounted, was carried from the church by Messrs. A. Casperson (relative), W.H. Rawson (grandson, of Trundle), S. Hellston, A. Anderson, S. Castles and L. Cullen. The floral tray, heavily laden with flowers, was carried by four very old friends, Messrs. W. Belling, sen., J. Henman, D. Fraser and S. Sly.

Among the friends gathered at the church were Messrs. W. Schultz, H. Krause, Harris, Davidson, Griffin, J. Castle. H. T. Steinholt, Gannon, Misses Schultz, Jay, and Moss, Mrs. Gould, Mrs. Henman, and Miss Sherriff. Many motor cars joined the cortege on the way to Lockhart and a very large number of friends were around the grave to pay their last tribute, the Rev. A. J. Gould, journeying from Wagga to officiate at the grave-side service.

The casket was carried to the grave-side by Messrs. A. Casperson, W. H. Rawson, A. Anderson, S. Hellston, S. Ashley, and F. Howard (grandson), and the floral tray was in the care of Messrs, V. Lloyd, J. Rynehart, H. Macklin and C. Lloyd (relatives) and a large number of wreaths were carried by friends.

The chief mourners present, in addition to those mentioned, were Mr. and Mrs. James Alfred Rawson (son and daughter-in-law), of Trundle, New South Wales; Mrs. J. Rawson (daughter), of Dubbo; Mr. Cannon, of Wagga; Misses Joan and Grace Rawson, Mrs. S. Rawson (grand-children); Mrs. Hartwig and Mrs. Rynehart (relatives) and many friends from Lockhart and Boree Creek, Milbrulong, The Rock, and Osborne, among them being Messrs. C. Cornell, A. Adamson, T. Richter, B. Boyd, W. Ilett, T. Hett, C. Odewalhn, J. H. Day, H. Hoffman, L. J. Rynehart, J. Rynehart (Engleby), Mr. and Mrs. Woodford, Mr. and Mrs. Prest, Mrs. B. Richter sen., W. Gollaseh, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Howard, Mrs. R. P. Gleeson (Osborne), Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Bauer, Messrs W. K. Day, A. G. Krause, J. Garratt, B. Taylor, B. Hartley, P. C. Leach, J. Heckendorf, R. Hartwig (Wodonga), Haberecht, W. Bond, H B. Krause, P. W. McCarthy, Mrs. F. Boyd and many others. Among the numerous floral tributes were wreaths from the Methodist Church, Wagga, the Methodist Church, Lockhart, Wagga Methodist Sunday school, W K. Day & Co. Ltd., and Lockhart branch of the Country Women's Association. The funeral arrangements at Lockhart and Wagga were carried out by Mr. Alan Harris, of Wagga.

MR. JOHN RAWSON, J.P. MR. JOHN RAWSON, J.P. Death at Wagga Wagga ATTAINED HIS 98th. BIRTHDAY LAST MONTH Great Tribute To a Pioneer and Public Benefactor Mr. John Rawson, retired grazier, aged years, died at his residence, 75 Kincaird Street, Wagga Wagga, on Saturday morning. Although his earthly life terminated in Wagga Wagga, it is with "Ingleby" Estate, Milbrulong, in the Lockhart district, that his name will be associated most. When they were residing (as he ceased himself put it) "within the sound of Bow Bells", London, his parents decided to emigrate to Australia, John, their son, being then a boy seven or eight years old. A memorable voyage on the barque "British Empire," terminated at Geelong (Vic.) and for Geelong district deceased always kept a warm corner of his heart, as he recalled the scenes of his boyhood and youth. Inverleigh (V.) was the place where he married Miss Hannah Faulkner, and as their family increased, they decided to migrate to New South Wales. Jerilderie district was the part of Riverina decided upon. It was the period when the cognomen "Squatter" had not the pleasant sound it has to-day: rather the reverse. New selectors were not welcomed and the selectors fully realised it. What troubled Mr. Rawson more was the desperate straights he was forced into, not by the squatters, but by the continuance of a severe drought, which decimated his flock, strained his financial resources to the utmost, and to make matters infinitely worse, sustained the great grief of losing the mother of his children. The experiences at Jerilderie were indelibly impressed upon his memory for the reasons stated, together with some additional reasons, viz., he was in Jerilderie township when the Kelly gang held up the Bank of N.S.W. and it was at Jerilderie that he met a fellow selector in the late Mr. Monahan. Upon their meeting they established a warm friendship, which remained unsevered up to the time of Mr. Monahan's death a few years ago. By rather a strange coincidence, the grandson of the late Mr. Monahan was interred in Lockhart cemetery just an hour before the remains of Mr. Rawson were interred there.

Descendants of William FAULKNER

Whilst still in the Jerilderie district he married Miss Amelia Faulkner, his deceased wife's sister. There were no children from the second marriage. Up- on hearing of a chance of settlement in the Mittagong district, Yerong Creek, he decided to make the move and was indeed fortunate in acquiring the estate to which he gave the name "Ingleby." If the experiences at Jerilderie had proved as bitter as the waters of Marrah to the Israelites, the experiences at "Ingleby" proved as the land of Canaan, a land of "milk and honey." The wealth which he eventually acquired was wrested from the property following many years of hard toil, combined with the frugality which he and his wife adopted, whereby riches acquired were considerably enhanced by the fewness of their wants, thus giving an example to the majority of us at the present day. Some years after Mr. Rawson had comfortably settled at "Ingleby," there came into the district (now known as Milbrulong) several families of German descent, from South Australia principally. To them Mr. Rawson gave the right hand of fellowship, helping in whatever manner he could and establishing with them a reputation that has made the name of Rawson the hall-mark of honesty and just dealing that will never be erased. In the years succeeding, when he was known to them as "the old gentleman," his name was mentioned with pride and sincere affection. The church of his upbringing was the Methodist Church and to that religious denomination he gave a loyal adherence and valued support right up to the day of his death.

Notwithstanding that fact he entertained a praise worthy spirit of tolerance towards all men of whatever church, who professed loyalty in faith to Jesus Christ. In association with the late Mr. John Lloyd, the Boyd and Howard families, Mr. Rawson joined in building the Union Church at Mittagong, and this little church has many sacred memories of men now passed to their reward, where they shared in the helpful ministration of Church of England, Lutheran, Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist ministers. When no minister was available or could not attend, Mr. Rawson himself conducted simple service. He was honoured with the appointment of Justice of the Peace and for many years exercised a helpful influence in many Lockhart district affairs such as the Brookong Farmers' Union (now the Lockhart F. and S.A.) and the Lockhart A. and P. Society. When the latter society acquired the showground-racecourse site, he felt that he could not conscientiously be associated with the society and such was his frank, outright character, he made no bones about saying so. For many years now he dissociated himself from all public matters, always excepting the exercise of religious duties, which consisted not so much in church-going as in carrying out the message contained in that scriptural saying, "In- as much as ye have done it to the least of these my brethren ye have done it unto me." Whilst amply providing for the claims of his family in his lifetime as a steward of riches he made distribution in such devious ways and manners as will never be known, besides many straight out public gifts. He did not forget Lockhart, which he had seen grow into strength since its Green's Gonyah days. Ever since the establishment of the C.W.A. branch at Lockhart he has contributed £20 per year. He was at all times prepared to contribute substantially to the erection of a cottage hospital at Lockhart. As to the Methodist Church, he was so keen upon having the minister stationed at Lockhart that he contributed £500 towards the erection of the first parsonage. Indeed he can be truly referred to as Lockhart's only direct benefactor up-to-date. He also substantially assisted Urana District Hospital. For the work of the Salvation Army he entertained the greatest respect and has made to that good cause many large donations. No S.A. officer within cooe of the place ever failed to call at "Ingleby": more frequently it was the first place they called and they were never turned empty away. Another charitable work that commended itself to his liberal support was Dr. Barnardo's homes for orphan children. In all these matters up to the time of her decease in 1933 he had the loyal support and cordial co-operation of his wife.

THE FUNERAL The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon. The cortege, which was very representative, moved from the Methodist Church, Wagga, at 1.30 o'clock for the Lockhart cemetery, where interment took place in the family enclosing. Before leaving the church, a short service, largely attended by relatives and many old friends, was conducted by the Rev. A. J. Gould. Two of Mr. Rawson's favorite hymns, "Rock of Ages" and "The Sands of Time are Sinking" were sung by the congregation. The oaken casket, beautifully mounted, was carried from the church by Messrs. A. Casperson (relative), W. H. Rawson (grandson, of Trundle), S. Hellston, A. Anderson, S. Castles and L. Cullen. The floral tray, heavily laden with flowers, was carried by four very old friends, Messrs. W. Belling snr., J. Henman, D. Fraser and S. Sly. Among the friends gathered at the church were Messrs. W. Schultz, H. Krause, Harris, Davidson, Griffin, J. Castle, H. T. Steinholt, Gan non, Misses Schultz, Jay and Moss, Mrs. Gould, Mrs. Henman and Miss Sheriff. Many motor cars joined the cortege on the way to Lockhart and a very large number of friends were around the grave to pay their last tribute, the Rev. A. J. Gould journeying from Wagga to officiate at the graveside service.

The casket was carried to the graveside by Messrs. A. Casperson, W. H. Belling, A. Anderson, S. Hellston, Stan Ashley and F. Howard, and the floral tray was in the care of Messrs. V. Lloyd, J. Ryne hart, H. Macklan and C. Lloyd (relatives) and a large number of wreaths were carried by friends.

Rev. A. J. Gould (superintendent of the Wagga Methodist circuit), in paying tribute to Mr. Rawson, said that he had known him for more than 20 years and knew him as one of God's gentlemen. He was a man with a grasp on God's finer things. He was a man of strong religious convictions. He had lived throughout the Victorian age and was possessed of Victorian standards, which had stood the test of the ages. John Rawson was a particularly generous man, who started on the road of life with nothing in his pocket, but made good with diligence and honesty. He remembered many occasions when Mr Rawson had personally helped people who were in urgent need. He was a Christian gentle- man, he said, with no affectation, was quiet, unobtrusive, reserved and he loved the little people of the Sunday School and always look ed for some way to assist them. 'We thank God for a beautiful Christian gentleman of God, un- afraid of meeting death," said Mr. Gould, "and to the bereaved ones we give our very tender sympathy in so great a loss." Besides those mentioned, the chief mourners included Mr and Mrs Jas. Rawson, Trundle (son and daughter-in-law); Mrs. J. JOHN RAWSON

JOHN RAWSON

After having reached the great age of 98 years, Mr. John Rawson, of Wagga, passed peacefully away on Saturday morning, 24th April. Born at Sunderland, Durham, England, he came to Australia with his parents when only a boy, making the memorable trip on the barque "British Empire," and landing at Geelong on 14th March, 1853. Mr. Rawson came to New South Wales in 1876, and until his retirement 14 years ago, was successfully engaged in farming in the Lockhart and Jerilderie districts.

Born in the Victorian Age, John Rawson governed his life largely by Victorian standards. He was a man of strong, religious convictions, a keen Bible student, and a man with a well-furnished mind. Failing eye-sight and hearing handicapped him in his later years, yet he maintained by "listening-in," an up-to-date interest with the world in which he lived.

John Rawson was a good man and honoured by all who knew him as one of "God's gentlemen." He was also a generous man. The Lockhart Parsonage costs were half paid for by him, and the Wagga Sunday School, and the Wagga Hospital received of his generosity. Much of his giving was quietly done, and children's institutions and families in distress were the recipients.

John Rawson met death unafraid, for his faith in Christ as Saviour was very beautiful and definite. Rev. A. J. Gould conducted a service in the Wagga Church on Anzac Sunday, and read the committal at the Lockhart Cemetery paying a worthy tribute to a friend whom he had known for 22 years. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rawson (Lockhart), Mr. J. A. Rawson (Trundle), and Mrs. J. Rawson (Dubbo) survive him, and with their children are in fellowship with the Christian Church. - A.J.G.

RAWSON PRIVATE HOSPITAL RAWSON PRIVATE HOSPITAL NEW NAME FOR SPECIAL UNIT AT WAGGA BASE HOSPITAL Perpetuates Memory of Late John Rawson To perpetuate the memory of the late John Rawson, of Milbrulong who was the chief benefactor for many years to the Wagga District Hospital it has been decided to name the private and intermediate section of the Wagga Base Hospital, the 'Rawson Private Hospital.

This decision was unanimously reached by the board of the hospital last night, and it was decided to seek the approval of the family of Mr Rawson. The chairman (Mr. A. O. F. Robinson) said that Mr. Rawson had been a wonderful benefactor. Year after year he had made donations of £50 or more, and one donation alone was £500. If the unit were named Rawson Private Hospital, the memory of a great man would be perpetuated and the institution would derive a certain prestige.

Judging by the recent demands on the private and intermediate wards, it might be necessary to extend that unit Mr. J. N. Small said that he had seen Mr. Rawson visit the secretary's office in years gone by, hand in a donation in an envelope, and with a quiet 'good morning,' would leave. On no account would he allow any publicity to be made of his donations. Frequently he had come to the rescue of the institution when it was in difficulties. Other members of the board agreed that the suggestion was a happy idea, and it was unanimously adopted.

The Lockhart Review and Oaklands Advertiser (NSW : 1910 - 1954) Tue 4 Jul 1933 Page 2 DEATH OF MRS. JOHN RAWSON. DEATH OF MRS. JOHN RAWSON. THE FUNERAL.

Though for some years a resident of Wagga, Mrs. John Rawson was always regarded as belonging to the Lockhart district, seeing that for 40 years she was the sharer and the bearer in the hardships and successes which marked the life of her husband, Mr. John Rawson, J.P., on his extensive grazing property, "Ingelby," a few miles from Milbrulong. When the Rawson family commenced life there, the Milbrulong district was one dense, pine scrub, and younger generations can scarcely imagine what difficulties those who pioneered the district in those days had to contend with. Happily, Mr. Rawson, now past his 93rd birthday, still lives, but his partner for fifty years has now to be numbered amongst the great majority, having parsed the allotted span of three score years and ten by six years. In a distressing visitation of that calamitous sickness of the mind which had assailed her more than once, she escaped from the loving care of those who tended her and her lifeless body was found in the cold waters of the lagoon at Wagga on Saturday morning.

Thus was ended a life which had made many fine contacts in the web and woof of human existence, for she was an excellent wife, an ideal step-mother for the young family, which through her marriage with Mr. Rawson, a young widower, had become her great responsibility, a first-rate neighbour, a good friend, and a woman most hospitable to strangers. She had an affectionate connection with the Methodist Church throughout her life, was a great admirer and supporter of the Salvation Army, a strong advocate of the C.W.A., and she shared her husband's generosity with many other religious and charitable works, notably the hospitals. The funeral took place at Lockhart on Monday. A service was conducted in the Methodist Church at Wagga, in the forenoon by the Rev. Arthur J. Gould, the Wagga Circuit Minister, who, on his arrival at Wagga recently, had the pleasure of renewing a warm friendship with Mr. and Mrs. Rawson, established in the years when Mr. Gould was minister at Lockhart, and when the Rawson's were residents at "Ingelby."

The service was largely attended, amongst those present being the Mayor of Wagga (Ald. E. E. Collins, M.L.C.), the president and directors of the Wagga District Hospital Board, besides other leading townsmen and representatives of public bodies. Captain Packer (Salvation Army officer) took part in the service. The minister delivered an address of a most touching character, in which he emphasised that the manner of her death was an accident for which blame was attached to no one, but her whole life and character recalled to all her faithfulness as a loving wife, a good mother, a staunch churchwoman, and the doer of good works. The remains were brought by motor hearse to the Methodist portion of the Lockhart cemetery, where several members of the Rawson family have been interred.

Notwithstanding that many town and district people were not acquainted with the occurrence, there was a large attendance at the graveside. The chief mourners included: Mr. John Rawson (widower), Mr. J. F. Rawson (step-son), Mr. J. A. Rawson (step-son), of Trundle; Messrs. A. Faulkner and Jas. Faulkner (brothers); Mrs. H. Stevens, of Trundle, and Miss Anna Faulkner, of Ballarat (sisters). The carriers were Messrs. Syd. Rawson, Wm. Rawson, J. Faulkner, C. H. Cornell, J.P., S. Ashley, and E. Howard. The pall bearers were Messrs. J. F. and J. A. Rawson, H. Rawson (of Bogan Gate), L. S. Castles, W. B. Davies, and R. Strusz. Amongst the general mourners present were: Cr. W. K. Day, Cr. J. J. MR. JOHN RAWSON

After having reached the great age of 98 years, Mr. John Rawson, of 75 Kincaid-street, Wagga, died at an early hour on Saturday morning at his residence, after a short illness. Mr. Rawson retired from active public life about 14 years ago and has since resided in Wagga, where he quickly won the respect and high esteem of the whole community for his wonderful munificence towards charitable institutions and other worthy causes, particularly the Wagga District Hospital. Born at Sunderland, Durham, England, he came to Australia with his parents when only a boy, making the memorable trip on the barque, "British Empire," and landing at Geelong on March 14, 1853. Mr. Rawson paid a visit to Geelong only a few years ago and noticed many changes.

His father also passed the allotted span of three score years and ten, reaching the age of 84 years at the time of his death. His mother died in her 64th year. Mr. John Rawson was twice married, first to Miss Hannah Faulkner, at Inverleigh (Vic.), in 1869, there being four children by this marriage three of whom survive him. In 1877 Mr. Rawson married Miss Amelia Faulkner at Geelong, and she predeceased him in July 1933. There were no children of that marriage. He came to New South Wales in 1876, and until his retirement 14 years ago, was successfully engaged in farming and grazing pursuits in the Lockhart and Jerilderie districts. Children surviving him are Mr John Frederick Rawson of Milbrulong, who is visiting England for the Coronation festivities; James Alfred, of Trundle; and Annie (Mrs. J. Rawson) of Dubbo). There are seven grand-children and 10 great-grand-children.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon. The cortege, which was very representative, moved from the Methodist Church, Wagga, at 1.30 o'clock for the Lockhart Cemetery, where interment took place in the family enclosure. Before leaving the church, a short service, largely attended by relatives and many old friends, was conducted by the Rev. A. J. Gould. Mrs. A. J. Boswell played the organ and two of Mr. Rawson's favorite hymns, "Rock of Ages" and "The Sands of Time are Sinking," were sung by the congregation.

Mr. Gould in paying tribute to Mr. Rawson said, that he had known him for more than 20 years, and knew him as one of God's gentlemen. He was just a small man, but one with a grasp on God's finer things. He was a man of strong religious convictions. He had lived through the Victorian age and was possessed of Victorian standards which had stood the test of the ages. John Rawson was a particularly generous man, who started on the road of life with nothing in his pocket but made good with diligence and honesty. Mr. Gould remembered many occasions when Mr. Rawson had personally helped people who were in urgent need.

He was a Christian gentleman, he said, with no affectation, was quiet, unobtrusive, reserved and very shy, but who loved the little people of the Sunday School and always looked for some way to assist them. "We thank God for a beautiful Christian gentleman of God, unafraid of meeting death," said Mr. Gould, "and to the bereaved ones we give you our very tender sympathy in so great a loss."

The heavy oaken casket, beautifully mounted, was carried from the church by Messrs. A. Casperson (relative), W.H. Rawson (grandson, of Trundle), S. Hellston, A. Anderson, S. Castles and L. Cullen. The floral tray, heavily laden with flowers, was carried by four very old friends, Messrs. W. Belling, sen., J. Henman, D. Fraser and S. Sly.

Among the friends gathered at the church were Messrs. W. Schultz, H. Krause, Harris, Davidson, Griffin, J. Castle. H. T. Steinholt, Gannon, Misses Schultz, Jay, and Moss, Mrs. Gould, Mrs. Henman, and Miss Sherrieff. Many motor cars joined the cortege on the way to Lockhart and a very large number of friends were around the grave to pay their last tribute, the Rev. A. J. Gould, journeying from Wagga to officiate at the grave-side service.

The casket was carried to the grave-side by Messrs. A. Casperson. W. H. Rawson, A. Anderson, S. Hellston, S. Ashley, and F. Howard (grandson), and the floral tray was in the care of Messrs. V.

Rawson (daughter), of Dubbo; Mr. Cannon, of Wagga; Misses Joan and Grace Rawson, Mrs. S. Among the numerous floral tributes were wreaths from the Methodist Church, Wagga, the Methodist Church, Lockhart, Wagga Methodist Sunday school, W K. Day & Co. Ltd., and Lockhart branch of the Country Women's Association. The funeral arrangements at Lockhart and Wagga were carried out by Mr. Alan Harris, of Wagga.

MR. JOHN RAWSON, J.P. MR. JOHN RAWSON, J.P. Death at Wagga Wagga ATTAINED HIS 98th. BIRTHDAY LAST MONTH Great Tribute To a Pioneer and Public Benefactor Mr. John Rawson, retired grazier, aged years, died at his residence, 75 Kincaird Street, Wagga Wagga, on Saturday morning. Although his earthly life terminated in Wagga Wagga, it is with "Ingleby" Estate, Milbrulong, in the Lockhart district, that his name will be associated most. When they were residing (as he ceased himself put it) "within the sound of Bow Bells", London, his parents decided to emigrate to Australia, John, their son, being then a boy seven or eight years old. A memorable voyage on the barque "British Empire," terminated at Geelong (Vic.) and for Geelong district deceased always kept a warm corner of his heart, as he recalled the scenes of his boyhood and youth. Inverleigh (V.) was the place where he married Miss Hannah Faulkner, and as their family increased, they decided to migrate to New South Wales. Jerilderie district was the part of Riverina decided upon. It was the period when the cognomen "Squatter" had not the pleasant sound it has to-day: rather the reverse. New selectors were not welcomed and the selectors fully realised it. What troubled Mr. Rawson more was the desperate straights he was forced into, not by the squatters, but by the continuance of a severe drought, which decimated his flock, strained his financial resources to the utmost, and to make matters infinitely worse, sustained the great grief of losing the mother of his children. The experiences at Jerilderie were indelibly impressed upon his memory for the reasons stated, together with some additional reasons, viz., he was in Jerilderie township when the Kelly gang held up the Bank of N.S.W. and it was at Jerilderie that he met a fellow selector in the late Mr. Monahan. Upon their meeting they established a warm friendship, which remained unsevered up to the time of Mr. Monahan's death a few years ago. By rather a strange coincidence, the grandson of the late Mr. Monahan was interred in Lockhart cemetery just an hour before the remains of Mr. Rawson were interred there. Whilst still in the Jerilderie district he married Miss Amelia Faulkner, his deceased wife's sister. There were no children from the second marriage. Upon hearing of a chance of settlement in the Mittagong district, Yerong Creek, he decided to make the move and was indeed fortunate in acquiring the estate to which he gave the name "Ingleby." If the experiences at Jerilderie had proved as bitter as the waters of Marrah to the Israelites, the experiences at "Ingleby" proved as the land of Canaan, a land of "milk and honey." The wealth which he eventually acquired was wrested from the property following many years of hard toil, combined with the frugality which he and his wife adopted, whereby riches acquired were considerably enhanced by the fewness of their wants, thus giving an example to the majority of us at the present day. Some years after Mr. Rawson had comfortably settled at "Ingleby," there came into the district (now known as Milbrulong) several families of German descent, from South Australia principally. To them Mr. Rawson gave the right hand of fellowship, helping in whatever manner he could and establishing with them a reputation that has made the name of Rawson the hall-mark of honesty and just dealing that will never be erased. In the years succeeding, when he was known to them as "the old gentleman," his name was mentioned with pride and sincere affection. The church of his upbringing was the Methodist Church and to that religious denomination he gave a loyal adherence and valued support right up to the day of his death. Notwithstanding that fact he entertained a praise worthy spirit of tolerance towards all men of whatever church, who professed loyalty in faith to Jesus Christ. In association with the late Mr.

Descendants of William FAULKNER

John Lloyd, the Boyd and Howard families, Mr. Rawson joined in building the Union Church at Mittagong, and this little church has many sacred memories of men now passed to their reward, where they shared in the helpful ministrations of Church of England, Lutheran, Presbyterian, Baptist and Methodist ministers. When no minister was available or could not attend, Mr. Rawson himself conducted simple service. He was honoured with the appointment of Justice of the Peace and for many years exercised a helpful influence in many Lockhart district affairs such as the Brookong Farmers' Union (now the Lockhart F. and S.A.) and the Lockhart A. and P. Society. When the latter society acquired the showground-racecourse site, he felt that he could not conscientiously be associated with the society and such was his frank, outright character, he made no bones about saying so. For many years now he dissociated himself from all public matters, always excepting the exercise of religious duties, which consisted not so much in church-going as in carrying out the message contained in that scriptural saying, "In as much as ye have done it to the least of these my brethren ye have done it unto me." Whilst amply providing for the claims of his family in his lifetime as a steward of riches he made distribution in such devious ways and manners as will never be known, besides many straight out public gifts. He did not forget Lockhart, which he had seen grow into strength since its Green's Gonyah days. Ever since the establishment of the C.W.A. branch at Lockhart he has contributed £20 per year. He was at all times prepared to contribute substantially to the erection of a cottage hospital at Lockhart. As to the Methodist Church, he was so keen upon having the minister stationed at Lockhart that he contributed £500 towards the erection of the first parsonage. Indeed he can be truly referred to as Lockhart's only direct benefactor up-to-date. He also substantially assisted Urana District Hospital. For the work of the Salvation Army he entertained the greatest respect and has made to that good cause many large donations. No S.A. officer within cooee of the place ever failed to call at "Ingleby": more frequently it was the first place they called and they were never turned empty away. Another charitable work that commended itself to his liberal support was Dr. Barnardo's homes for orphan children. In all these matters up to the time of her decease in 1933 he had the loyal support and cordial co-operation of his wife.

THE FUNERAL The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon. The cortege, which was very representative, moved from the Methodist Church, Wagga, at 1.30 o'clock for the Lockhart cemetery, where interment took place in the family enclosing. Before leaving the church, a short service, largely attended by relatives and many old friends, was conducted by the Rev. A. J. Gould. Many motor cars joined the cortege on the way to Lockhart and a very large number of friends were around the grave to pay their last tribute, the Rev. A. J. Gould journeying from Wagga to officiate at the graveside service.

The casket was carried to the graveside by Messrs. A. Casperson, W. H. Belling, A. Anderson, S. Hellston, Stan Ashley and F. Howard, and the floral tray was in the care of Messrs. V. Lloyd, J. Rynehart, H. Macklan and C. Lloyd (relatives) and a large number of wreaths were carried by friends. Rev. A. J. Gould (superintendent of the Wagga Methodist circuit), in paying tribute to Mr. Rawson, said that he had known him for more than 20 years and knew him as one of God's gentlemen. He was a man with a grasp on God's finer things. He was a man of strong religious convictions. He had lived throughout the Victorian age and was possessed of Victorian standards, which had stood the test of the ages. Descendants of William FAULKNER

Born in the Victorian Age, John Rawson governed his life largely by Victorian standards. He was a man of strong, religious convictions, a keen Bible student, and a man with a well-furnished mind. Failing eye-sight and hearing handicapped him in his later years, yet he maintained by "listening-in," an up-to-date interest with the world in which he lived.

John Rawson was a good man and honoured by all who knew him as one of "God's gentlemen." He was also a generous man. The Lockhart Parsonage costs were half paid for by him, and the Wagga Sunday School, and the Wagga Hospital received of his generosity. Much of his giving was quietly done, and children's institutions and families in distress were the recipients.

John Rawson met death unafraid, for his faith in Christ as Saviour was very beautiful and definite. Rev. A. J. Gould conducted a service in the Wagga Church on Anzac Sunday, and read the committal at the Lockhart Cemetery paying a worthy tribute to a friend whom he had known for 22 years. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rawson (Lockhart), Mr. J. A. Rawson (Trundle), and Mrs. J. Rawson (Dubbo) survive him, and with their children are in fellowship with the Christian Church. - A.J.G.

RAWSON PRIVATE HOSPITAL RAWSON PRIVATE HOSPITAL NEW NAME FOR SPECIAL UNIT AT WAGGA BASE HOSPITAL Perpetuates Memory of Late John Rawson To perpetuate the memory of the late John Rawson, of Milbrulong who was the chief benefactor for many years to the Wagga District Hospital it has been decided to name the private and intermediate section of the Wagga Base Hospital, the 'Rawson Private Hospital.

This decision was unanimously reached by the board of the hospital last night, and it was decided to seek the approval of the family of Mr Rawson. The chairman (Mr. A. O. F. Robinson) said that Mr. Rawson had been a wonderful benefactor. Year after year he had made donations of £50 or more, and one donation alone was £500. If the unit were named Rawson Private Hospital, the memory of a great man would be perpetuated and the institution would derive a certain prestige.

Judging by the recent demands on the private and intermediate wards, it might be necessary to extend that unit. Mr. J. N. Small said that he had seen Mr. Rawson visit the secretary's office in years gone by, hand in a donation in an envelope, and with a quiet 'good morning,' would leave. On no account would be allow any publicity to be made of his donations. Frequently he had come to the rescue of the institution when it was in difficulties. Other members of the board agreed that the suggestion was a happy idea, and it was unanimously adopted.

PERSONAL

OBITUARY

Mr. John Rawson, of Kincaid-street, Wagga, died at an early hour on Saturday morning (Ed: 24 April) at his residence, after a short illness. Mr. Rawson retired from active public life about 14 years ago and had since resided in Wagga.

Born at Sunderland, Durham, England, he came to Australia with his parents when only a boy, making the memorable trip on the barque, 'British Empire,' and landing at Geelong on March 14, 1853. Mr. Rawson paid a visit to Geelong only a few years ago. His father reached the age of 84 years at the time of his death, and his mother died in her 64 th year.

Mr. John Rawson was twice married, first to Miss Hannah Faulkner, at Inverleigh (Vic), in 1869, there being four children by this marriage, three of whom survive him. In 1877 Mr. Rawson married Miss Amelia Faulkner at Geelong, and she predeceased him in July, 1933. There were no children of that marriage. He came to New South Wales in 1876, and until his retirement 14 years ago, was successfully engaged in farming and grazing pursuits in the Lockhart and Jerilderie districts. Children surviving are Mr. John Frederick Rawson, of Milbrulong, who is visiting England for the Coronation festivities; James Alfred, of Trundle, and Annie (Mrs. J. Rawson), of Dubbo.

The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon. The cortege, which was very representative, moved from the Methodist Church, Wagga, for the Lockhart cemetery.

OBITUARY NOTICES.

THE LATE MR. J. LLOYD.

The death took place at his farm residence, Lalla Rook, Yerong Creek, on Thursday, of Mr. John Lloyd, one of the best known men of this district. Not only was he widely known but he was also greatly respected, being a most honorable man in all his dealings and a gentleman in the truest sense of that word. The earlier part of his life was spent in Victoria, his native place being Manifold's Camperdown, Victoria. In 1888, (or thirty ago years) he came from those parts with his life-long friends, Mr and Mrs John Rawson, of "Ingleby." Settling down about the same spot, they mutually shared the varied experience of pioneering work at a time when conditions were not so convenient and hardships were not so easily surmounted. He successfully established a home and his family have taken a prominent part in the social life of the district. He leaves a widow and five sons and five daughters to mourn his loss. One of the sons, Private Harold George Lloyd, of the 3rd Battalion, A.I.F., was killed in action on 4th September, 1917, and the death was a great blow to his parents. Deceased for many years had charge of the postal Receiving Office in his district and in that capacity earned the complete confidence of the public. He was also the electoral officer for that part of the district, his re-appointment at each election time being taken as a matter of course in view of the conscientious services rendered. The Lockhart A. & P Society loses through the death of Mr. Lloyd, one of its oldest and most valued members. When failing health induced Mr. Lloyd some time ago to send in his resignation the Committeemen with one consent endorsed the view of the President, Thomas Bond, who said "I would much prefer to keep his name on." Mr Lloyd greatly appreciated this act of courtesy on the part of the Committee. During his last earthly days he was spiritually comforted by the Rev. W. A. Brice the Church of England Vicar of Lockhart and other friends. The truths of the Christian religion were counted by him a precious possession and during his married life he did not fail to maintain in his home the family altar as a monument of the faith that was in him. He and his good wife ever kept an open house for the hospitable reception of the ministers who found it convenient to stay there. The interment took place in the Yerong Creek Church of England cemetery. There was a large gathering of old friends assembled to show their last respects. The pall-bearers were : Messrs B. L. Boyd, H. Howard, J. Fred Rawson, J. W. Rynehart, R.W. Hartwig, and W. R. Macklan. Rev. W. A. Brice officiated. The funeral arrangements were conducted by Messrs J. Nolan & Co

SAD DEATH BY BURNING.

A little girl, 4 1/2 years of age, named Ethel May Lloyd, and a daughter of Mr. John Lloyd, of Lalla Rookh near Yerong Creek, met her death on Friday last as the result of a burning accident, thus making a double bereavement in the same family within a week. It will be remembered that a few days ago we had to chronicle the death of Richard Lloyd, 12 years of age, and a son of Mr. John Lloyd, resulting from his being thrown from his horse, and now the hand of death has carried away this second victim from the same family circle. It appears that on Thursday morning the child was playing in the garden with some other young children, and, to amuse themselves, they lighted a camp fire in a hole dug for that purpose. The unfortunate child must have got too close to the fire and thus ignited her clothes for she suddenly screamed out, and her father, who was inside the house, on running out, found the child completely enveloped in flames.

Without hesitating a moment Mr. Lloyd tore the burning garments from the child's body, but not before she had sustained terrible burns. As well as possible Mr. Lloyd dressed the burns, and making all possible haste to Yerong Creek, just managed to catch the train to Wagga. On the arrival of the train here the child was taken to Dr. Long's residence, but her injuries proved so severe that she expired directly the house was reached.

OBITUARY.

MRS. W. H. THRUPP

We regret to record the death of Mrs. Mary Agnes Thrupp, wife of Mr. W. H. Thrupp of 'Lauriston' Roma, which occurred at St. Vincent's Hospital, Toowoomba, on 26th April.

Mrs. Thrupp "was the fourth daughter of the late Mr. William Lloyd, of Camperdown, "Victoria, where she was born on the 19th December 1865. After completing her education, at the age of 16 years, she joined her eldest brother, the late John Lloyd, of "Lallarook," Lockhart, N.S.W., and resided with him until December, 1886, when she married Mr. W. H. Thrupp, who was then residing at H. Lagoon, Surat. Immediately after their marriage, they came to Surat, and purchased a butchering business, from Mr. W. A. Naylor, now of Wangobel, Surat. Selling out the butchering business to the late William Lawton in 1888, they took up their residence at Roslyn, Surat, where they resided for three years. In 1891 Mr. Thrupp leased a grazing property, now known as Rockton, from Mr. Chas. Ferris, senior, where they remained until 1895. Coming to Roma Mr. Thrupp purchased from the late James Hanlon his present home, "Lauriston," where Mr. and Mrs. Thrupp have lived for nearly 34 years. The late Mrs. Thrupp was of a very retiring disposition, being devoted to home life..

She was the mother of nine sons and four daughters. One son predeceased her in 1921, aged 16 years. She leaves a husband and twelve children to mourn their loss, 10 being married Ernest (Railway), Goulburn (Sutton Grange, Roma), Moffat (Rolston, Surat) Cecil, (Euraba, Mitchell), Cyril (Blythwood, Roma), Robert (Royland, Surat), John (Grosvenor Downs, Surat), Laurie (Normandy, Muckadilla). Her daughters are Mrs. G. E. Singleton (Dalby), Mrs. Colin H. Wood (Lorne Peak, Blackall), Mrs. Herbert S. Carne (Gwynneville, Mount Abundance), and Miss Gem Thrupp (Lauriston). Her remains were brought to Roma for burial, the funeral being one of the largest ever seen in Roma, the Rev. R. H. W. Bagot, Presbyterian minister, performing the last sad rites.

MR. WILLIAM HENRY THRUPP

A Sturdy Australian.

In the passing of Mr. William Henry Thrupp, of Lauriston, last Friday afternoon in the Roma General Hospital, the Maranoa district and Queensland lose a sturdy Australian, and a man who had been associated with the progress and development of this district for half a century, and one who had in that period taken a big share in the responsibilities attached to that progress.

Mr. Thrupp came from a family actively connected with the land, and the land was in his blood, inherited and from personal attachment to it and the ups and downs for which it is celebrated. He was born at Ravenswood, Victoria, in 1865, and later went with his family to the Riverina, where he remained for about seven years. At the age of 17 he came to Queensland with the family, and arrived in the Surat district in 1882.

Some years later he returned to Victoria, and was married at Camperdown to Miss Mary Lloyd, and returned to Rosslyn. In 1897 he purchased Lauriston from Mr. Hanlon and after years of fighting prickly pear and scrub, converted it into one of the best improved little holdings in the district. With Lauriston, about 12 miles from Roma, on Surat road, the foundation for extensive land activities, Mr. Thrupp assisted his sons, who have generally followed their father's liking for the land and the grazing industry, and the family now has extensive properties in the district. His wife predeceased him 10 years, leaving a grown up family of nine sons and four daughters, all of whom with the exception of one daughter, Mrs. Singleton (Dalby) are engaged in pastoral activities.

Mr. Thrupp was twice married, his ?? formerly ?? this ?? aged about nine years. Mr. Thrupp, despite his many activities, found time to devote to the service of fellow landowners and the public. He served for many years on Bungil Divisional Board, with colleagues in Hon. James Lalor, Messrs. Donald Fletcher, T. Ferrier, Donald Ross (clerk), and other well known early pastoralists, and at the time of his death was a member of Bungil Shire Council. He was always a lover of a good horse, and has been associated with racing as owner and club official right through his residence in the district, and had bred and owned a number of winners.

He was also actively associated with the W.P. and A. Association, and for a period President,, and for many years active on the committee. He was always ready to lend a helping hand to any movement for the benefit of the town and district, and his liberal assistance will be missed in many quarters..

Mr. Thrupp had been in ill-health for some months, and about six months ago resigned from the Shire Council, but members deferred acceptance, expressing the hope that he would recover his health and again take his seat and join their deliberations. His health gradually became worse, and he passed away on Friday afternoon last.

The funeral moved from the Presbyterian Church on Saturday afternoon, a preliminary service having been held in the Raphael Lodge, deceased having been a Past Master. The cortege was the largest ever seen in Roma, and was attended by sorrowing relatives, and friends from town and district.

CYCLISTS ON FOOTPATHS.

TWO CASES BEFORE THE POLICE COURT.

Two cyclists were proceeded against, on Thursday, before Mr. G. D. McCormack, P.M., and Mr. D. Curdie, J.P., for riding on footpaths in Camperdown.

Avery George Lloyd did not appear. Constable McNamara said the defendant rode a bicycle on the footpath in Leura-street on the 23rd of December. When spoken to about it, Lloyd said " It is all right." Mr. McCormack : And I suppose you said it was all wrong. Constable McNamara stated that Lloyd had been fined 10s on a former occasion for furious riding on a bicycle. Mr. McCormack: If 10s won't stop him, we'll see if 20s will. A fine of 20s was recorded.....

Avery married Delia Lloyd in Victoria in 1906. There were 2 children by this marriage. Delia died in Heidelberg, VIC in 1910.[4]

He remarried to Eva May Shaw in 1913. There were 2 children by this marriage.

An argument with a neighbour landed him in Court charged with using insulting words. It seems obvious he did, but the charge was dismissed.[5] His evidence suggests he had some military background.

In 1917 he applied to become an Australian Munitions Worker under a joint Australian government/ British government scheme to supply skilled workers for the War effort in the UK. He was accepted and his agreement was signed on 04 Oct 1917. He was issued with Australian Munitions Worker Badge No. 2551 and embarked on the SS "Anchises" on 08 Aug 1917 from Sydney, NSW, arriving in Liverpool, England on 02 Oct 1917.

From there he proceeded to France to work for Messrs. McAlpine & Sons as a carpenter. Within a short time he had transferred with the company to Spondon in England.

On 03 Sep 1918 he transferred to Messrs. Davidson Aviation Factory, Hammersmith as a joiner. However, within a few weeks he had been dismissed for leaving work without permission. It seems they later reinstated him.

In Jun 1918 he sought permission to visit relatives in Rugby, England. Permission was given, provided he did not miss his boat.

Avery returned to Australia on the SS "Bahia Castillo", departing Devonport, England on 18 Jul 1919. After disembarking at Port Melbourne on 16 Oct 1919 his agreement was terminated as complete the same day. He returned to live in Camperdown.

Over the next few years he was very frequent correspondent with the Department of Defence about progress on (State) Legislation for Soldier Settlement Blocks and whether Munitions Workers would be eligible - an issue over which the Defence Department had no control. He was living in Camperdown until after 1922. It seems he was not eventually successful in gaining a block as he subsequently moved to West Preston, VIC.

Avery died in Preston, VIC in 1929.

Len Jones 1987

FAMOUS BAKER

A Bena Football and Netball Club volunteer and famous Korumburra baker has died.

Leonard George Jones (Pop or Poppy, as he is known to many) was born on December 13 1925 at Bendigo, the second of three children to George and Kath Jones.

Len started school at Red Cliffs primary, then St. Joseph's Catholic school in Red Cliffs until the family moved to Swan Hill.

In his youth, Len was a cub Scout, a roller skater, motorbike and sidecar racer as well as playing harmonica for a regional radio station.

He was even a ballroom dance instructor at a prestigious Melbourne dance academy.

Len left school around the age of 14 and took up an apprenticeship as a baker in Swan Hill.

He continued his apprenticeship in Nhill before finishing up at Kew.

During his apprenticeship year, World War 2 broke out Len enlisted in the Navy.

Len was not taken in, however, as his baker's apprenticeship didn't allow for such under the terms of the Essential Services Act, so he had to stay home and bake bread.

Employment opportunities after the war led Len to Yenda (NSW) where he started his own business as a baker.

He gave this away and followed his father's footsteps, joining the PMG where he worked as a linesman, cable joiner, and jackhammer operator.

It was around this time he met Margaret Sullivan.

Len and Margaret had nine children, Michael, Kathleen, Patricia, Gregory, Susan, Maxwell, David, Fiona and Kellie; then 21 grandchildren, a number which is still increasing.

Len gave away his PMG job in the late 1950's and joined his brother-in-law working on a fruit block at Woorineen, near Swan Hill.

When the block was sold returned his hand back to baking and the family moved to Myrtleford before moving to Korumburra 43 years ago.

Len soon earned fame as the baker at LeGross's in Korumburra, along with his home delivered bread run.

Len left the bakehouse and took up farmhand work, milking cows in the district for Walkers (Korumburra), Castles (Bena), Prossers (Loch), and Lupis (Bass Valley) before being forced onto an invalid pension 24 years ago.

At this juncture (1980) the family settled at Korumburra into what at the time was a rather plain housing commission house.

Len's love of gardening saw him transform the appearance with a very well groomed garden.

But it was not only the front garden that was Len's showpiece, he toiled equally hard in the backyard with his veggie patch, fruit trees and orchids.

As his children grew, Len's interest in life followed them.

For many years he helped coach at the Bena Netball Club and was a team manager thirds and fourths teams for the Bena Football Club.

Len also served on the Bena Football Club Committee.

He was also involved in the cricket club at Bena, playing key roles in coaching and team management.

Yet despite all these involvements in things for the kids, Len still managed a bit of time for fishing, cards, a bet or two on the horses, and time to watch the cricket and footy on TV.

After an illness, Len passed away peacefully at Korumburra hospital on April 9, aged 77 years.
